Six German Armies In Flight

YANKEES PARADING IN PARIS

American soldiers are constantly being honored by the French populace. Here they are shown parading through the Champs Elysees, Paris. Charming damsels are handing them roses.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY

TRANSPORT TORPEDOED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—News reached the Navy Department today that the American transport Mount Vernon, homeward bound, has been torpedoed by a submarine two hundred miles from the French coast, but had turned back and arrived safely at a French port.

CHASE 'EM IN AUTOS

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE AISNE FRONT, Sept. 6.—In their endeavor to keep up with the Germans who are retreating beyond the River Aisne, the Americans have organized automobile machine gun detachments, with three men to each car. More than thirty cars were operating north of the Vesle River early today.

SUGAR RATION CONTINUES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Retention of the present sugar ration of two pounds a month for each person was announced by the food administration today.

MEAT CONTROL COMING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Compromise has been rejected and government ownership advocates in the Senate today announced their readiness to fight out the issue of permanent federal operation of stock yards and packing houses at this session of Congress.

LEARNING THE TRUTH

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 6.—Berlin and the Province of Brandenburg have been placed under "the law relating to a state of siege which provides for a fine for persons inventing or circulating untrue rumors calculated to disquiet the populace," according to the Cologne Volks Zeitung.

A notice accompanying the declaration, which is signed by General von Linsingen of the Brandenburg province calls attention to the circulation of frivolous and sometimes malevolent and "traitorous gossip," exaggerating the transitory successes of the enemy.

AIR EQUIPMENT GROWING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Confidential messages from General Pershing and other reports indicate that the American army now is supplied with sufficient airplanes to protect its men in battle. General March, chief of staff, gave this information to members of the House military committee today at their weekly conference at the War Department.

PEOPLE GETTING WISE

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 6.—Efforts to counteract the inconvenient questions the German people are beginning to ask are now being made in Germany, but with results thus far which scarcely can be said to hearten the public.

A BAD ACTOR PINCHED

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Officials here this morning assert that in the arrest of Thomas J. ("Shorty") Wilson, secretary of "Big Bill" Haywood, convicted boss of the I. W. W., they hold the man who threw the federal building bomb, which caused a death toll of four.

Wilson was arrested almost simultaneously with Mrs. Mammie Wymann, sister of Haywood, with whom he boarded.

BOMBS AT SACRAMENTO

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 6.—Forty pounds of dynamite was found here today by the police. It was concealed under a pile of roofing paper back of a store room a short distance from the former headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World, which were closed last December by the police and government officials. Approximately ten pounds of the explosive had been removed from the box.

CUBS WIN 2ND GAME

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—The Cubs won today's game from the Boston Red Sox. The score was 3 to 1. "Bullet Joe" Bush pitched for Boston and Tyler for Chicago.

MORE SLACKER TALK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Controversy over draft slacker roundups broke out again today in the Senate. Senator Smoot of Utah, Republican, called up his resolution proposing an investigation by the

LATEST BULLETINS FROM THE FRONT

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Sept. 6.—French cavalry this morning passed through the town of Chauny, from which the enemy had fled. The troopers are advancing toward Teignier, four and one-half miles northeast of Chauny, and have reached the region of Viry-Noreuil, two and one-half miles from Teignier. General Debeney's army has turned the Ham-Guiscard line at Dampcourt, west of Chauny. The Germans are retreating rapidly all along the front south of the Somme.

WITH THE AMERICANS ON THE AISNE, Sept. 6.—More than half a dozen villages between the Vesle and the Aisne are now in American hands. Our troops are still following up the German withdrawal.

GENEVA, Sept. 6.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, the German chief of staff, has again been forced to appeal to the German people not to become alarmed over the continuous defeats the Germans are sustaining on the western battlefield, said a dispatch from Berlin today. The telegram quoted Hindenburg as saying: "We have conquered in the east and we are strong in the west, despite the appearance of Americans. But it is necessary to remain strong and united in the rear, and we must be prepared to face much air bombing."

PARIS, Sept. 6.—The course of the fighting on the western front continues to show that Marshal Foch is practicing his precept, "the whole art of war consists in attacking," with telling effect on the enemy. Six German armies are recoiling, closely as was the case with the allied forces four years ago.

RICHMOND BOY WRITES FROM VANCOUVER CAMP

And Tells Of The "Spruce Soldiers" Among The Timber, And What They Are Doing For Uncle Sam

Private Oscar S. Lee

27 Casual Company
Signal Corps Cantonment
Vancouver, Wash.
Sept. 4, 1918

Mr. Hulanski:

I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know that I, one of the "Spruce Soldiers" you mentioned in your paper, have not forgotten your kindness, and appreciate it very much for the kind favor of putting my write up in your paper and also sending copies of it to me every day since then. When I am through reading them I send them to my comrades, who came up here with me from Richmond, and they in turn pass them around the camps, and boost our home town, Richmond.

They have got our boys scattered all over so Richmond has a representative in all camps, and these boys of ours, are sure putting the town on the map.

They started kidding me, by howling my name Oscar S. Lee K. P., all the time in the kitchen, and all new arrivals who work on Kitchen Senate military committee of the arrests in New York and elsewhere. Senator Jones of New Mexico commended the effort to catch draft slackers.

Police duty bear it and as I have traveled quite a bit all over this country I tell them of the places I have been in, and always show my Richmond up giving them the glad hand.

One day I said to our chef: "As long as you allow your men to holler my name out and tell every Tom Dick and Harry that I am from Richmond, California, my town will get on the map."

So he says: "Then I guess you will be Chief Publicity Agent."

You have no idea how it is when your paper comes to me. The boys take the papers away from me and believe me they sure like the local news. I have them so well posted on Richmond that I believe they will all come in and pay our town a visit after the war.

My Cousin is J. O. Dahl, Secretary of the Contra Costa Building Trades Council. I guess you know him. Jack Galvin and Geo. Ryan know me, also Zeb Knott is one of my best friends, and I am glad he won out. I know Wm. Lane, our Mayor pretty well too, and he is a good man. Zeb Knott and Bill Lane are both all right.

You wonder, I guess, how it is I use K. of C. stationery. The K. of C. people treat us boys fine we have movies and shows four times a week. On Wednesdays, the Ladies come here and sew for us. Every Sunday morning after service we get a nice big breakfast free. A few Sunday's ago they took all us boys out to a real nice picnic, we had a good time and plenty to eat free. The Y. M. C. A. people treat us fine, too. The Ladies of Portland and Vancouver invite us to nice dinners on Sunday's at their own homes. The Young ladies of Portland send us lots of books and magazines to read all the time. Portland is a nice town to be in. They treated the G. A. R. boys nice when they held their convention there. We saluted these old soldiers and we feel proud of it.

We are now all in one Company, the 27th. Pretty soon we have to leave for the woods, and maybe by Christmas we will be in France. Whenever we go our mail follows. With best love to you and all my

COL. ROOSEVELT OUTLINES SOME PEACE TERMS

Serbia and Rumania must have restored to them what Bulgaria has taken from them.

The Austrian and Turkish empires must both be broken up, all the subject peoples liberated and the Turk driven from Europe. We do not intend that German or Magyar should be oppressed by others, but neither do we intend that they shall oppress and dominate others.

France must receive back Alsace and Lorraine.

Belgium must be restored and indemnified.

Italian Austria must be restored to Italy, and Rumania Hungary to Rumania.

The Czechs and Slovaks must be made into an independent commonwealth.

The southern Slavs must be united in a great Jugo-Slav commonwealth.

Poland, as a genuinely independent commonwealth, must receive back Austria and Prussian Poland, as well as Russian Poland, and have her coast line on the Baltic.

Lithuania, Latvia and Finland must be guaranteed their freedom and no part of the ancient empire of Russia left under the German yoke.

Northern Schleswig should go back to the Danes.

Britain and Japan should keep the colonies they have conquered.

Armenia must be freed, Palestine made a Jewish state, and the Syrian Christians liberated.

AUXILIARY HOSPITAL UNIT ENJOYS MEETING

The Auxiliary of Bays Hospital Unit, No. 47, which is composed of the relatives and friends of the boys in that unit, now serving in France, held a meeting Thursday evening in Hotel Oakland. Many local members were present, among whom were Mrs. Harlow and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan and many others.

Unit No. 47 consists of boys from San Francisco and bay cities and many from Richmond. They were formerly located at Camp Fremont and later sent to Camp Ogelthorpe and from there to France. The trip was made in the interned ship "Fatherland" and made the record trip in seven days, other ships required ten days.

HARRY MARCUS, President

A FEAST OF WISDOM AND A FLOW OF SOUL

Also a Feast Of Good Eats And a Flow Of Coffee And Ice Cream—That Was The C. of C. Banquet Last Night

There was a handsome attendance at the Chamber of Commerce banquet last night, both in appearance and numbers, and the dinner and the entertainment were also up to expectations and both strictly all right.

President Clark of the Chamber opened the meeting with a few choice remarks, and appointed Mayor Lane as toastmaster. The Mayor said he was glad to occupy that position, because he could put all the talking off on somebody else, which would be sandwiched in between the musical numbers of the evening.

Murphy's celebrated Quartette was present and opened the hall with a fine selection, which drew such applause that they had to sing another. After this the dinner was served in courses by the pretty and gracious ladies of the Richmond Club, Lord bless 'em, and we fell in love with both all over again—the ladies and the dinner. Both were par excellence, as usual.

After the ice cream and coffee stage had been reached, Clem Bradshaw was called upon to make a few remarks and recite one of his original poems. Now, probably the editor of the News is more to blame for Clem Bradshaw coming to Richmond to live lately than anybody else. He came from Kansas, and while there used to write poems for our Thinkograph magazine. Clem showed up here a couple of weeks, and announced he had come to stay the rest of his life, and as he got off safely after that poetic burst last night, we judge he will be allowed to remain. He is a fine fellow.

Percy Neil, local sweet singer, then gave a selection, and the large audience was so mad about it they made him sing another before having any more dinner, which he did.

Judge D. B. Hall made some telling hits, at which some fell off their chairs and other looked around for bricks. We would have thrown a biscuit, only they were too good to eat and could not be wasted. He announced that since the soup had been eaten and comparative quiet again reigned he would furnish his part of the musical program—singing, and he did. Judge Dab was at his best, and made a hit. Rev. Boyer also made one of his characteristic very good short talks, and told some amusing stories to illustrate what good work could be done by our community by sticking together and doing team work. Dr. Boyer is always interesting.

The dinner was splendid, and cooked so good that every plate was Hooverized, notwithstanding it was liberally supplied.

Mr. Murphy, of the Murphy Comedians made a short talk, saying that he and his wife desired to make Richmond their home, and hoped the City Council would not make the theatrical route to them prohibitive.

Chairman Clark spoke entertainingly upon the necessity of co-operation in Richmond for the general upbuilding of the community, at the conclusion of which a committee of five of Chamber of Commerce members were named, to meet with similar committees to be appointed by the City Council and the Merchants association, and confer with the County Supervisors upon roads and other matters of interest to Richmond. The committee is composed of D. J. Hall, Isaac Lester, E. H. Puise, J. R. Vaughn and W. T. Helms.

After more good singing by the quartette, three cheers were given for the ladies of the Richmond Club and the fine dinner they had served, and adjournment taken, subject to call of the president of the Chamber.

Those present were: W. Ellis, John Roth, Chas. S. Myer, John G. Gerlach, C. S. Downing, Oscar A. Long, C. C. Kratzer, James T. Harbitt, C. A. Odell, W. T. Helms, Charles J. Cray, Parkas Bros, By C. B. R. G. Armstrong, R. G. Jones, T. J. H. Otten, A. J. Nystrom, J. C. McDowell, Mrs. C. E. Clark, Mrs. C. A. Odell, Frank Hull, F. J. Hulaniski, F. Ketelhut.

FRIENDS WHO ARE NO MORE

Seems like a lot of this scribe's good and dear journalistic friends are being called from this life to the other, where-ever and whatever it is, and contemplation of it is sad for we thought a lot of them. From occasional Kansas and Colorado papers we get very frequently of late of some good old journalistic friend who has passed on "over the top" of eternity, and pretty soon now there won't be any of the prominent old timers of the west, in editorial ranks, left.

We wonder whose turn will come next. If the next call be for us, we hope we go where they have gone, for that's good enough place for us. We loved every one of these men, and the day looks sort of "treasty" out through the window pane when we think of them and the pleasant times we spent in their company, and thoughts come crowding in on top of each other that are not of money and business and politics, or of sordid gain, nor yet of pleasures, but of wonder-ment as to what it all means. There must be some hereafter, some solace for sorrow, else why do our thoughts and sentiments flow back and engulf us as an Alpine torrent? If it be the end, seems like we would not care as we do.

There are moments in all our lives when there comes flashing back into memory's changing track recollections of friends who have been called to that home beyond the stars not made by hands. As one contemplates the moments, or maybe years, spent with them inexpressible sadness creeps into the heart, and there is a loneliness that cannot be described—a yearning for the comrade sleeping beneath the sod uncon-less, silent, inanimate as the clouds that rattled down upon the coffin. It is a part of the great plan to love and be separated, to have friends and have them move away, to form attachments and have them torn asunder by death, and the great leveler, who is no respecter of love or friendships. Today we rejoice, tomorrow we mourn; today we laugh, tomorrow we cry; today our friends are with us, tomorrow we are alone. Thus has it been since the beginning of time, and so will it be until there is no time,
and the earth shall be swallowed up in the final eternal design of the Creator.

A PLAY TO THE GALLERIES

It seems to us that Senator Johnson's loud scream over the round-up of selackers in New York and Chicago is a whole lot louder than there is any call for, and that it is another of his grand stand plays to the galleries.

The military authorities grabbed about 14,000 young men who are within draft age, have no wives and children depending upon them for support, and are not employed in an essential work, and that being the case they ought to be rounded up, and the military authorities are the ones to do it.

The Senator's cry of "terrorism" is far fetched. There is no such thing in this country, and the people would not stand for it if there was. This country is at war, and has got to make good.
Certain laws have been passed by the Congress of the United States to fit the necessities of the emergency and we have all got to live up to those laws until the emergency no longer exists, and that is all there is to it.

Therefore, it stands to reason that the laws should be enforced by the officials whose duty it is to enforce them, and those who do not live up to those laws and rules have no sympathy coming, and should be made to do what they do not do willingly. A slacker is a slacker, whether he is rich or poor, and if he is within the draft age, able bodied; unmarried, and not engaged in a necessary work, then he should be made to either
"work or fight."

Holding down thousands of useless clerkships should be stopped. Most of that sort of thing can be done by the older men or the women. If a man is a slacker, we believe in getting him, and not with kid gloves, either. Senator Johnson should put a plaster on his mouth.

Today's dispatches state that a Kansas turkey gobbler has taken possession of a nest of thirty eggs deserted by the turkey hen and is setting on them, (or sitting, if you prefer). He just knew this suffragette business would lead to something like that. What are the gobblers and roosters going to do when the hen leaves the nest? There is nothing else to do but set (or sit) on the eggs.
Dern politics anyhow.

Hi Huskies

To Battle Today

The Richmond Huskies will meet the Oakland High Rugby crew on the local grounds tomorrow morning at 10:30 in a bloody encounter of rugby.

This is the first game of the season and the "Huskies" are eager for the fray, having been drilled by their valiant leader "Young" Brooks, till they are tough enough to fight wildcats and could plow through even a Hindenburg trench.

Many stars of last years champion crew will be seen in the lineup, while other stars that have left are replaced by very promising rising comets, who will streak their way from goal to goal.

Among the popular ones of last years team are Mino, the Fleet

Some Jewish Stores

To Be Closed Today

Today, Jewish New Years, will be observed by some of the stores and not by others. As in the case with all Jewish holidays, the observance begins the preceding sundown, last night and lasts until sundown Sunday, two days being observed in place of one as is the custom in the reform synagogues.

All Jewish stores which close for the day will be open at 5 o'clock. Others will remain open as usual.

Foot; Shimmers, the Struggler, MacLoughlin the Mashier and Brooks the Batterer.

Richmond ought to turn out with the Hi boys and root the home team to victory.

TO THE READER

The News is a plain paper for plain people. It gives you all of the local news and a synopsis of the war and general news, delivered at your breakfast table every morning except Mondays, for 40c a month.

The News maintains an editorial department said by the people to be second to none in California. It always has something to say on all live issues, and is never afraid to say it, no matter were the chips fall. It is for Woodrow Wilson and Democracy and makes war against both graft and booze in season and out, every day and every night. Its basic doctrine is the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, and its editor is president of the Sunshine Club.

The News is the official paper of the City of Richmond; also the official representative of organized labor in Richmond, of which there are 25 locals, with a membership of 3,000; and it has the unqualified endorsement of the temperance people.

Some people do not agree with the policies of the News, for which it is thankful, as there are some people it does not want to agree with it; but even they will acknowledge that it fights fair and in the open. It cannot be bought, bribed or bulldozed, and many who have tried it can so testify.

The News wants you on its list, and wants your name in its local news columns often. If you will attend to those two detail, the News will do the rest.

TO ALL PATRIOTIC CITIZENS

The following appeal to patriotism is issued by the Power Administrator appointed by the Railroad Commission of the State of California.

CONSERVE ELECTRICITY

Patriotism demands that you save electricity for war industries.

Northern and Central California have a serious power shortage because of lack of rain during the past winter and the increased use of electricity by war industries.

THESE WAR INDUSTRIES MUST HAVE POWER

There is not enough power for everybody at the present rate of consumption. It is up to you to save. Turn off your lights when ever possible and use lower power lamps.

This is one other thing you can do in the great struggle.

Power Administrator

Auxiliary Hospital

Unit Enjoys Meet

quiring at least sixteen days. A pleasant voyage was reported all the way over.

During the evening letters received from soldier boys were read, and it was learned that they are now permanently located in a hospital in France. Although the name and location of the hospital could not be given, it is said that it is situated near a large city and in a beautiful mountainous country. Unit No. 47 has a large division of the hospital, and the boys are given the best of everything. There are over ten thousand beds in this hospital.

The auxiliary raised funds of $100 for tobacco for the boys before leaving the states and are now raising funds to build a Nurses Hospital in San Francisco for the benefit of the nurses who return home after the war, worn out, which will serve as a home for them.

Another meeting will be held by the Auxiliary the first Friday in October, at the St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco. A social affair and dancing will follow the meeting, and all interested in the Unit will be welcome.

Chaplain (Doctor) C. L. Abbott is in charge of Unit 47 in France, and Dr. U. S. Abbott leaves today or tomorrow to join the service and will soon meet his brother and the other Richmond and California soldiers "Over There."
